

Memling Portative Organ

March 2013

The above image is for illustrative purpose only, the model supplied will depend on the version ordered

Quotation to build and supply a 25-note portative organ in a style based on images painted by Hans Memling (ca. 1480).

Characteristics of portative to be supplied:

1. 25- note (2-octave) chromatic compass – C to c<sup>1</sup> – at 2-foot pitch with pipes made of best Scots pine with oak blocks and caps. Pipes fitted with internal tuning flaps. The pipes may also be made in quartersawn English oak – please specify on order form. Metal pipework (80% tin with pressed bayleaf mouths) can also be fitted at an extra cost.
2. Keyboard with pine levers covered with lemonwood (naturals) or stained pearwood (accidentals) with parchment hinges.
3. Under-key pin action to pine pallets covered with two layers of sheepskin with brass springs.
4. Single action, multifold, bellows with pine ribs and sheepskin hinges and gussets.
5. Case of pine with tracery windows and battlement in a gothic style, finished in matt paint with gold-painted highlights. The case may also be made in quartersawn English oak with a wax finish – please specify on order form.
6. A carrying case can also be supplied at additional cost

Cost: £3,200 (incl. free delivery within 50-mile radius of ME19 5JZ)

Extras: Carrying case (pine and plywood) - £250

Metal pipes (80% tin) with tuning rolls to rear - £600

- Terms:
1. 25% of cost of total order payable upon placing a firm order.
  2. Delivery 3 months from date of order
  3. Remaining 75% of cost of order payable upon delivery.
  4. The organ is guaranteed against all defects in materials and workmanship for a period of two years from the date of purchase.
